September Guest Artist Alex Powers

*“Alex is the greatest painter in the world.”
- Alex’s sister (courtesy of the Southern Artistry Website)*

While clearly not an unbiased statement, acclaimed artist Alex Powers certainly has received much praise and recognition over his long career. A painter and self-employed art teacher since 1970, Powers has won many national awards, including the Gold Medal at the 1997 American Watercolor Society Annual Exhibition. CWA is delighted to have Alex as our guest for our September 16th meeting and as our workshop artist.

Powers is a resident of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, and travels the United States and Canada, teaching 8-10 workshops per year. He is one of the storied artists and teachers at the Taos Intensive Studies Seminar. His colleagues in that endeavor include Christopher Schink, Skip Lawrence, Katherine Chang Liu, and Fran Larsen.

Despite an education in mathematics, Alex was able to launch a successful art career after studying at several art schools in Florida and the Northeast. His works appear in museums in New York, Florida, Minnesota, and throughout the south.

Alex’s painting style has evolved into a personal content-dominated imagery. Using gouache, charcoal, pastel and sometimes collage on illustration board, his loose realism combines an emphasis on drawing with an awareness of the art of our times. “I attempt to deal with issues such as human origins, religion, philosophy, economic inequality, etc. These overwhelming issues are difficult to deal with, but they are what interest me. And, since I believe in the singularity of life and art, these issues are the content of my life and my current work.”

As Powers states, his reasons for painting relate to content more than form. The content that interests him concerns ideas as well as emotions: ideas questioning our life choices; an acquaintance with philosophers and writers; and his selected preferences from past and current thinkers.

“I find learning to teach as difficult as learning to paint. At one time, like so many other teachers, I thought the perfect teaching format was: demo each morning, individual help during the middle of the day, and a critique at the end of the day. However, this format is based on the ‘how-to-do-it demo,’ which is not what students need. They need to find their own personal expression, and then find their personal how-to-do-it technique to deliver that expression /content...we live in a good time for art. We are not constrained by the dogma of academic realism or the dogma of Abstract Expressionism. Postmodernism brings all styles into play without hierarchy”.

Powers is the author of “Painting People in Watercolor, A Design Approach.” His works have also been included in 16 books, two of which are “New American Painting,” and “In the Spirit of Martin: The Living Legacy of Martin Luther King, Jr.” Alex also has 22 articles to his credit, most recently in The Artist Magazine, May 2007.

Alex has won 14 Best-of –Show awards in national competitions, including the American Watercolor Society 139th International Exhibition, New York, NY, Gold Medal, 1997, The Artist Magazine Art Competition 1999, Experimental Category, and the San Diego Watercolor Society International Juried Exhibition, San Diego, CA, 2002. He has also had 15 invitational exhibitions including:

- The Republic of China, USA, Australia Watermedia Exhibition, and Taiwan Watermedia Exhibition (1994)
- In the Spirit of Martin: The Living Legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Smithsonian Institution, Washington D.C., 2001 and traveling exhibitions, 2002-2004
- 100 Years/100 Artists, South Carolina State Museum, Columbia, SC, 1999-2000
- Red State Blues, Halsey Gallery, College Of Charleston, SC, 2008

Powers has been a Juror for 50 exhibitions, and was the awards juror for the National Watercolor Society, (awards juror) Los Angeles, CA, 2001.

We welcome Alex Powers to CWA with great pleasure.

The Last Workshop of 2009 - Judy Greenberg's Surfaces, Textures, and Paint Quality October 19-23

CWA's own Judy Greenberg, now living in Georgia, returns to the Bay Area for her workshop "Surfaces, Textures, and Paint Quality." This workshop is ideal for those painters who want to develop loose, strong paintings with good design and marvelous paint quality. Judy's last workshop here was in 2003, so it is definitely time for a return engagement! Her class will focus on progressive techniques, with a strong emphasis on design. This workshop will include use of techniques to make a composition work and focus on "how to pull the painting together", with daily demonstrations and critiques. This will be a fun and rewarding experience!

From her DVD "Creative Watercolor Using Gel Medium," Judy will demonstrate the use of gel medium and a mid-value underpainting. The use of values in a painting will be emphasized. We will be working from photos that have strong value patterns, extreme lights and darks.

Board Position Opening: Director of California Shows

The Director(s) of California Shows is a board position that serves the CWA membership by creating the annual calendar of local CWA shows. The calendar for 2010 is already in progress; created by utilizing established locations or finding new venues throughout the nine Bay area counties for our members to exhibit their art. The director(s) may also be involved negotiating contracts, terms and conditions with gallery personnel, gallery owners and jurors. Procedures and the process for producing the events are well documented. The director(s) recruit members to become show chair(s) for each venue. This position's responsibilities can be shared two co-directors. Prospective candidates will receive training and guidance from members experienced in the process of creating an art show. Please contact President Samantha McNally for additional information.

CWA 41st National Exhibition

We held a planning meeting with the Presidio Trust staff on August 18 to put the wheels in motion for the next show, which will be in the summer of 2010. Since this will be the third exhibition in partnership with the Presidio Trust, we are on a familiar path.

We still have openings for a Receiving/Shipping Coordinator and a Fund Raising Coordinator. All the other positions on the National Committee are already filled by experienced volunteers who will help new people who want to get involved. If interested, please contact us at:

Marilyn Miller - 925-631-6673, moraga2@pacbell.net
Maggie Metcalf - 925-837-8698, magster753@msn.com

We look forward to hearing from you!

Concord Oktoberfest

OUTREACH VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED OCTOBER 17TH for morning and afternoon sessions for the Concord Oktoberfest at Todos Santos Park. Last year CWA did free paint set-ups for 150 children, and the community was very grateful, especially in these tough economic times. If you can help, please contact Carol Smith at plcarolsmith@yahoo.com.

Alameda County Fair Youth Exhibition

CWA Outreach paid a visit on July 18th to the Alameda County Fair Youth Art Exhibition. Thanks to the generosity of CWA members, a free CWA youth membership and $50 awards were presented to three young watercolorists.

- Rachel Ross, grade 6, from Trinity Home School
- Tammy Cheng, grade 9, Yumei Center for Artistic Inspiration
- Jung Yeon (Kim) Ryu, grade 11, Mission San Jose High School.

The subjects of these beautiful watercolor paintings ranged from blue butterflies to a breathtaking figure with violin. Kudos to the next generation of painters.

artist spotlight

Emi Beifuss

I was born in Japan. Ever since I was young, I liked to draw. I did mostly drawings of pretty girls. I studied figure drawing with a few Japanese artists in Osaka, and joined a small group of people at my college in Kobe who liked to do illustrations.

After I graduated from college, I decided to come to the United States. When I was studying English in San Francisco in the early 1980's, I found an art school called "The Academy of Art." I enrolled in the school right away.

Besides basic fine art training, I studied illustration, graphic art, and advertisements. I tried many different media, but I liked watercolor the best. At school, I realized that "art" is not just about techniques. An artist might have great technique, but without the right spirit, their work could be boring. Even if an artist has somewhat limited skills, if her work shows her spirit, people will like it.

I met my husband and became a U.S. citizen, but I gave up on my art until well after the divorce. Right now I'm still re-learning to paint. I've forgotten many things about watercolor painting.

My work is very influenced by Japanese art, especially Manga and Anime. I like to paint things that make people wonder, things that I want to have, fantasy places where I want to be, fantasy creatures whom I want to meet. And also I like to paint cats too.

"Discovery" by Larry Cannon, CWA

Larry Cannon, CWA currently has a watercolor in the California Art Club's exhibit at the Frederick Weismann Museum of Art in Malibu, is one of 30 artists invited to paint in this summer's Telluride Plein Air Festival, and is looking forward to having two watercolors exhibited in the California Art Club's centennial exhibition at the Bennington, Vermont Center for the Arts in August.

Dick Cole, CWA was awarded best of show in the 69th Northwest Watercolor Society National Exhibition for his painting, "Second Set". Watercolor Artist Magazine has a feature article on Dick's paintings in their July/August issue.

Susan Cornelis has published her complete sketchbook from a trip to British Columbia on her blog <http://susancornelis.wordpress.com>.

Signature member, Henry W. Dixon, has authored his first book with North Light Books. It is available at most bookstores, including Amazon.com, Barnes and Noble and Borders.

David Savellano, CWA and award winning painting.

Pat Dispenziere's watercolor "Bishop's Chair" was juried into the 89th Annual National Watercolor Society Exhibition at City of Brea Art Gallery in Brea, CA. The show opens Oct. 11 and closes Dec. 20th. Pat's watercolor "Santorini Light" has been juried into the Pittsburgh Watercolor Society's 63rd Annual International Exhibition to be held at be Galleries Nov 3rd-Nov 28th. Also her collage won a 2nd award and her watercolor "Seawatchers" won a 1st award in the Carlsbad Oceanside Art League 59th Annual Open Juried Fine Arts Award Show to be held at the League's gallery in Carlsbad July 29th - Sept 6th.

"Watercolor Secrets" is just released by North Light Books, and Guy Vincent Magallanes had a book signing event at Gallery 2611 on the Saturday that coincided with the Redwood City ArtWalk from 7 - 9 pm. Rachel Wolf, the editor of the Splash Books, asked Guy if he would like to contribute to this first book of its' kind. It was originally slated to be called "Splash in Action," but was changed to "Watercolor Secrets." "Splash" books feature finished work, the best in contemporary watercolor, and this new book shows step by step demonstrations from 15 selected artists, and Guy was one of the selected artists!

Robin Purcell had an article written about her and her artwork in the Danville Weekly newspaper on August 7. To read the article go to: www.danvilleweekly.com/story.php?story_id=6473

Michael Reardon has been juried into the Watercolor West 41st Annual Exhibition. With this selection he also received signature status in Watercolor West.

David Savellano, CWA was awarded Best of Show for his painting titled "Gallagher & Lindsey" at the 4th annual Frank Bette Center for the Arts Plein Air Paint Out in Alameda by juror Seamus Berkley. See www.frankbettecenter.org for more information.

"Harmonica ...Has Something Inside" by Tony Segale

Tony Segale, of Lodi, received an Award of Excellence for his watercolor "Sacramento Street," and an Award of Merit for the watercolor "Harmonica... Has Something Inside" in the Fine Arts Competition at the California State Fair.

Nicholas Simmons was featured in an 8 page article in the premier issue of new watercolor magazine in France, l' Art de l' Aquarelle. He also recently won the gold medal at the 30th Annual Pennsylvania Watercolor Society, the second year in a row that he has won this honor.

Sandy Delahanty Fall Workshops

October: "Grape Vines" Emphasis on texture. Grapes, vines and leaves offer the perfect subject for practicing texture. We will use some of the techniques we learned in the sunflower class and add new ones for creating the rough texture of the leaves and vines.

Thursday, Oct. 22, 1 - 5 pm Sacramento Fine Art Center, 5330-B Gibbons Drive, Carmichael, fee $40. Saturday, Oct. 24, 1 - 5 pm, University Art Center, 2610 Marconi Ave., Sacramento, fee $40.

November: "Autumn Leaves" Emphasis on negative painting. This is a fun way to paint. You apply color to the paper first, then paint the "negative space" around the leaf shapes and create the leaves. Thursday, Nov. 19, 1 - 5 pm, Sacramento Fine Art Center, 5330-B Gibbons Drive, Carmichael, fee $40. Saturday, Nov. 21, 1 - 5 pm, University Art Center, 2610 Marconi Ave., Sacramento, fee $40.

To register for a class please call (916) 652-4624 to ensure there is space available. Confirm your registration by writing your check to "Sandy Delehanty", and mailing it to P. O. Box 130, Penryn, CA 95663. Checks are not cashed until after the class has taken place.

The CWA newsletter is accepting ads from anyone who would like to be a sponsor of CWA. The newsletter is sent out monthly to all of our members. It is a very effective way to reach a large audience of artists. All CWA artists paint with watercolors, but not exclusively. Many members also paint in oils, acrylic and pastels.

We are offering the following sponsor packages that reflect available advertising space. All ads, except Classified, run for a minimum of 3 months and are payable in advance. A 10% discount is available to CWA members, members also get classified ads for free. Deadline for insertion is the 10th of each month prior to publication (ie, January 10 for the February newsletter).

Formats accepted are digital or camera-ready artwork. Images should be scanned at 300 dpi. File format preferred is PDF, but we can accept JPG, TIFF, EPS files. All ads will appear in black and white in the print version, and in color in the email version.

Contact Lin Teichman at LinTeichman@gmail.com or (925) 838-6328 for further information.
