August Guest Artist Myrna Wacknov

If your youthful travels ever took you through Kansas City, Missouri, and if you ever had a charcoal sketch done there, you might have seen CWA's own Myrna Wacknov in early action. Kansas City native and Bay Area transplant Myrna Wacknov will be our guest artist at our August 18th General Meeting. Myrna also will be giving a 5-day workshop entitled "Beginning Watercolor Portraiture" for CWA from August 16-20 at Gallery Concord. This workshop will give attendees an opportunity to learn techniques for painting 3 different age groups and for various angles of the face, including full, profile, and three-quarter facial views. (Very limited space is still available, so if you are interested, contact June Hunt at jlhunt@aol.com to sign up.)

Myrna was already demonstrating an unusual ability and interest in art from the age of five. Her passion for color, portraiture and figurative work have been ongoing themes ever since. Myrna was doing commissioned portraits before graduating from high school. She was also the charcoal sketch artist at numerous outdoor art shows around the Kansas City area for a number of years. She studied with world-renowned portrait artist Frank Szaz as a teenager and learned to paint in oils in the Old Master's technique.

After attending Washington University in St. Louis and the Kansas City Art Institute, Myrna finished her degree in Painting and Drawing at the College of San Mateo and San Francisco State University. Myrna is accomplished in oil, charcoal, pastel, collage and acrylic, as well as watercolor, a passion she came to later in life, in 2000. She has taken many workshops with top watercolorists including Joseph Bohler, Catherine Anderson, Roland Roycraft, Judy Morris, Charles Reid, Arne Westerman, Frank Francese, Carla O'Connor, and Karen Frey. She has also participated multiple times in Mike Bailey's "Watercolor Beyond the Obvious" classes. Myrna gives major credit to Mike's teaching, which she has described to akin to getting a master's degree – high praise indeed.

Wacknov often paints on synthetic papers – which you know are very different and challenging if you've ever tried them - to paint some memorable portraits. Many of her paintings are of older people, and the character drawn from a mature life is well expressed in her work.

Myrna says that her focus of interest has changed over the years to capturing an expression and gesture rather than creation of an exact likeness, and recently she has been pushing the design potential of her subjects by working in series, keeping the image constant and changing the combination of elements from painting to painting. (Mike Bailey must be pleased to hear her say this!) Her eagerness to experiment with processes and techniques provides endless opportunities for exploring her creativity.

Though she continues to work in many art mediums, she describes watercolor as her “love affair”. On her Creativity Journey blog, she states that she is challenging herself to work on her art every day and create a minimum of 2 finished pieces each week. “My intention is to explore ideas and techniques and push myself beyond my comfort zone. I will be working in a series with several different images. My interests at this time are drawing, line, texture and color. I will be posting exercises and challenges for myself and any others who wish to join in the Creativity Journey.”

Myrna has had her work accepted into many national watercolor competitions and she has won awards in exhibits with the Rocky Mountain Watercolor Society, the San Diego Watercolor Society, the California Watercolor Association, the Watercolor Association of Houston national show, Louisiana Watercolor Society, Transparent Watercolor Society, Rocky Mountain Watercolor Society, (where she won the Louise Cadillac award), Watercolor West, and the National Watercolor Society. She won first place for Watercolor in the Society of Western Artists annual show. In 2008, she won the CFS Medal at the American Watercolor Society Exhibition, and a 2nd place in the self-portrait competition in American Artist (October 2008). She is a member of CWA’s Gallery Concord, where her work is exhibited regularly.

Wacknov received her Signature Membership in the National Watercolor Society in 2005, and her Signature Membership in the California Watercolor Society in 2007. Myrna’s work has also attracted the attention of national art publications. The October 2007 issue of Watercolor Magic magazine had feature article on her portrait process. She was featured in the March 2008 issue of Artist Magazine, in an article on 20 artists over 60 in The Artist’s Magazine (March 2008), and appeared on the cover of Palette Magazine (December 2008 – January 2009 issue).

According to Myrna, she continues to explore watercolor’s limitless range of possibilities with a special emphasis on color, dramatic impact, and textures. Her figurative work seeks out the universal communication of humanity through expression and gesture. If you’ve seen her portraits and figurative work, you’ll agree that she has mastered the language.

Join us in extending a big CWA welcome to our own Myrna Wacknov!

Assistant Outreach Coordinator

Position Open

This is a paid CWA staff position.

The overall responsibility of the Outreach Coordinator is to coordinate classes and events between schools/educational facilities/community centers and CWA's watercolor artists. The Coordinator works closely with the Outreach Director. The job involves scheduling classes, coordinating volunteers, attending scheduled classes, setting up supplies and cleaning up art supplies, keeping track of supply inventory, ordering supplies and writing a monthly article for CWA's newsletter. In addition, CWA's Outreach is involved with a couple of community festivals that require scheduling and working at the CWA Outreach booth. If you're interested in expanding your horizons, this job is for you.

Outreach is critical to meeting the mission of CWA to educate and promote water media in our community. Outreach programs are especially valuable to our community since art programs are being cut in schools.

Please email us at info@californiawatercolor.org or email Michal, our current Outreach Coordinator, michalweinstein@yahoo.com for more details about this fun opportunity to work with the community.

Hospitality position open

Please volunteer to help Sandra Gorski at the general meetings. Make coffee, set up refreshments, enjoy the demo, then help clean up. We need 2 or three volunteers for this position. You can earn 3 volunteer hours for each meeting. Sign up online by emailing info@californiawatercolor.org.

Newsletter on the www.californiawatercolor.org

Our newsletter is now online, in full color. Just go to www.californiawatercolor.org and click the link about the General Meeting.

42nd National Exhibition

We need the help of CWA members so we can have a 42nd National exhibition. Please volunteer to be the 2011 Vice President(s) and Directors of the National Exhibition. Without our membership volunteering, our association cannot continue! We also ask all members to help us find a venue for 2011. Next year the Presidio will be doing some renovations on the Officers' Club so it's not available to us. We expect to return when the remodeling is complete. So please come forward with ideas, contact information, and details about a new venue for our next national exhibition. Please come forward and join our board of directors as VP/National Exhibition Director(s). Email info@californiawatercolor.org if you're interested in helping CWA continue smoothly into the future.

Special Interest Group with Carolyn WarmSun. In the past year, I have been painting more and more abstractly and experimentally (see www.warmsunart.com). I would like to find a small group of artists who also paint this way, and who would like to get together on a monthly basis to offer ideas and suggestions for moving paintings along. My hope is that we would all learn in the process as well: additional techniques and enhanced application of good composition and design principles. It would be great if the group could meet during the week. I am thinking of a small group, rotating meeting at each other's homes (unless someone has a place we can use for meetings). If you are interested, please email me or give me a call at (510) 336-9215.

David Peterson, Sacramento, was awarded the Fran Bristow award and "Peoples Choice" for his watercolor "Locke Tourists" at the Northern California Arts 2010 Membership Show. Sayeko Nakamura's painting "Episode IX" has been accepted into the San Diego Watercolor Society's 30th International Exhibition. The exhibition runs from October 1 - 31. Additionally, her painting "Flower Plant" was accepted into the 2010 Lancaster Art Association National Juried Exhibition in Pennsylvania. That exhibition ran through July 22.

national exhibition

As you read this, the 41st National Exhibition is well underway. The show opened July 14 and will run until Sept 19.

The hanging of the exhibits on July 10 was orchestrated and beautifully led by Leslie Wilson. Her leadership abilities, detailed planning and execution of this very important event had to be experienced to appreciate what an amazing job Leslie did, while assisted by many volunteers. When you view the exhibit you will be very pleased and impressed by Leslie's expertise, dedication and hard work, and proud if you were one of the fine volunteers who made it all happen. Thank you all!

The opening awards presentation and reception took place on Sunday, July 18. It was a memorable afternoon. Our thanks to Sue Johnston for once again so ably planning and executing the reception; 41st National Co-Chairs Christine Dougherty and

Desmond Elder for all their detailed planning and coordinating of the exhibition; President Samantha McNally for being such a fine Master of Ceremonies; Lynda Moore for coordinating and operating the video of the award winning entries while juror Christopher Schink presented the awards to the winners who were present. Congratulations to all 20 award winners. Congratulations to the members who achieved their Master Signature and Signature award certificates which were presented to them by Sue Johnston, Membership Chair.

Be sure to see the 41st Exhibition in the Presidio Officers' Club gallery. Once you see the exhibit, you'll want to spend more time in the gallery and fortunately, there are many opportunities for you by becoming a Docent!

Being a Docent is a great opportunity to meet people, promote CWA and this fine art of painting, while earning volunteer service credits toward your certification. You can take part in this eclectic display while you get to know the 41st National Exhibition in the beautiful Officers' Club of the Presidio.

Gallery Docent dates: July 14 - Sept 19, Wednesday through Sunday, 11 am - 5 pm. It would be great to have 2 volunteers daily, so bring a friend!

Please sign up via e-mail to volunteer: cwa41stnational@christinedoughertywatercolors.com

Include your name and phone number in the email with the day or dates you wish to be the CWA Docent for the 41st National Exhibition.

CWA exists through volunteerism. It is not too early to volunteer to take a leadership position for the upcoming 42nd National Exhibition. The more new volunteers, the more successful CWA's future events will become, as they bring new energy, new ideas and useful skills to all of CWA.

sponsorships

The CWA newsletter is accepting ads from anyone who would like to be a sponsor of CWA. The newsletter is sent out monthly to all of our members. It is a very effective way to reach a large audience of artists. All CWA artists paint with watercolors, but not exclusively. Many members also paint in oils, acrylic and pastels.

We are offering the following sponsor packages that reflect available advertising space. All ads, except Classified, run for a minimum of 3 months and are payable in advance. A 10% discount is available to CWA members, members also get classified ads for free. Deadline for insertion is the 10th of each month prior to publication (ie, January 10 for the February newsletter).

Formats accepted are digital or camera-ready artwork. Images should be scanned at 300 dpi. File format preferred is PDF, but we can accept JPG, TIFF, EPS files. All ads will appear in black and white in the print version, and in color in the email version.

Contact Lin Teichman at LinTeichman@gmail.com or (925) 838-6328 for further information.
