

Niles

February 18, 2012 10 am to 1 pm
Niles, California

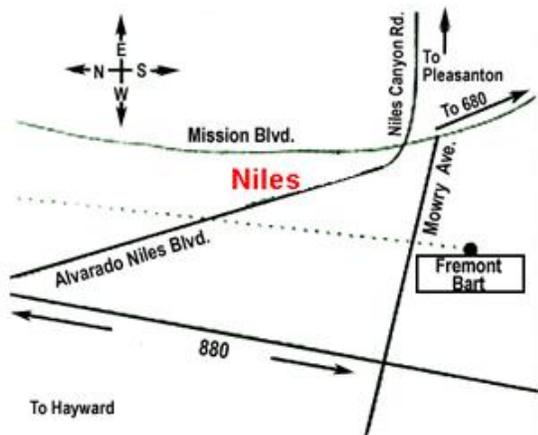

The historic Niles District of Fremont, California provides a wealth of painting subjects. Paint the historic buildings downtown, train cars that may be pausing in their run from Sunol, surrounding hills, or follow the Blvd. a short distance across Mission Blvd. for views of Alameda Creek. <http://niles.org/>

Meet at the Niles Depot Museum on Niles Blvd., between H and I street. Public parking and restrooms are close at hand. Bring your lunch or buy it from several nearby restaurants/delis.

Here is a MAP to the Fremont Art Association one block away on the corner of J Street. We can gather at 1:00 pm in the park area by the Niles Depot Museum, shown in the image on the left, above, have lunch and conduct our critique.

We will ask for a volunteer to write the article for the newsletter about the day and we'll take pictures of all of the paintings for the newsletter and www.facebook.com/californiawatercolor

Niles is located in the City of Fremont, California in southern Alameda County. Niles is easily accessible from US Interstate Highways 680 and 880.

From Oakland and San Francisco, take 880 South, exit at Alvarado Niles Road and head east about six miles.

From San Jose, take 680 north to the second Mission Blvd. exit and drive north on Mission Blvd. for four miles. Turn left on Niles Blvd.

If you approach from the west you will come through Fremont city streets. If you approach from 680 you will travel a very scenic part of 84.
