January Guest Artist

Claire Schroeven Verbiest

Claire Schroeven Verbiest will be our guest artist at January's General Meeting. She is a Belgian native who lived in the Congo and in Germany before moving to San Jose, California with her husband and their two children.

A CWA signature member, an award-winning artist and a signature member of several other art societies, Verbiest is considered one of the finest watercolor and pastel artists in the San Francisco Bay Area. She is well known for her lively, crisp and truthful depictions of people, landscapes, flowers and objects and for her distinctive use of color. A popular, caring and organized instructor, Claire regularly offers watercolor and pastel workshops. Some of these have taken her as far away as Canada, Hawaii and Europe. For a complete list of her upcoming workshops, please visit her web site at www.claireverbiest.com. Of particular interest to the CWA membership might be her watercolor workshop in Walnut Creek at the end of March 2010. Claire also frequently serves as a juror for local and international art shows. In May and June 2007, 29 of her pastel paintings were on display in a solo exhibition at the Triton Museum of Art in Santa Clara, California.

Whether working in watercolor or in pastel, she strives to transform the ordinary into the extraordinary and to charm the viewer's eye with intense color, dramatic light and strong design. Claire's fascination with watching the dance between watercolor paint and water on paper never ends. Some of the "happy accidents" thus created can lead her to discoveries and techniques that she then incorporates in her future work. Watercolor's inherent qualities, its luminosity, the flowing washes and the grainy textures offered by sedimentary paints and the contrast between transparent and opaque paints keep her interest in the medium alive. She'll be happy to share her enthusiasm for watercolor with you during her demo at the Shadelands Center. Till then!

Verbiest's works regularly appear in significant national exhibits as well as in national and international publications such as Splash 4 (cover artist), 6, 7, 9, and 10, Floral Inspirations, The Best of Flower Painting, The Best of Portrait Painting, The Best of Pastel, Watercolor Magic Magazine, Pastel Artist International Magazine, Masterstrokes: Pastel, Masterstrokes: Watercolor, Painting Great Pictures from Photographs, and many other books.

Members Vote at January Meeting

At the January general meeting, the members will be asked to vote on an amendment to CWA's Articles of Incorporation. These Articles, adopted in 1975, provide the basic structure of the organization. They need to be amended to add some current language about State tax codes. This update to the Articles will enable CWA to qualify for a tax exemption on the space used by Gallery Concord. The proposed amendment has been reviewed by our accountant and our attorney and approved by the Board of Directors. If anyone is interested in seeing the text of the amendment in advance of the meeting, please contact me.

Marilyn Miller
Budget Director

"Conversations With the Muse: The Art Journal as Inner Guide" is a celebration of the creative spirit through the practice of art journaling. The author's own colorful art journals serve as examples of how personal revelation and healing are cultivated through this process. The reader is guided through the steps including: accessing a quiet state of mind, translating inner feelings and visions to paper, employing a wide array of painting and collage techniques, and writing expressively to reap vibrant meaning from the images appearing in this spontaneous manner. The colorful images, materials, techniques, and written words combine for a rich feast Gallery Concord had a wonderful reception for their Holiday Celebration and Mini show on Saturday, Dec 5. Gallery members have on display their mini watercolor paintings in different styles, plus their unique boutique items of many delicate crafts. Berean Christian High School choired with Christmas songs and every body had a great time!

At the beginning of 2010, Gallery Concord announces its newest show, "New Beginnings" which will run from Jan 7 – Mar 28, 2010. Opening night reception is Friday, Jan 8, from 6:00 – 8:00pm. Live music will be provided by the "Dana Street Jazz Trio" and wine and light refreshments will be served.

"New Beginnings" will feature Gallery Concord artist Janet Walton, who loves the way watercolor can convey realistic detail and still retain a soft, transparent quality. Her inspiration comes from the beauty around her whether it is nature, animals or people. Her goal is to make the viewer look deeper at a subject and appreciate the beauty not at first apparent. She also enjoys creating situations and settings which may not seem plausible at first. The challenge for Janet is to create a painting realistic enough to seem believable.

Our guest artists will be Karen Flamme, a fiber artist whose work is characterized by vibrant color, innovative design and often a touch of whimsy and Lucy Beazley, a ceramic sculptor whose work depicts the human figure as an animate vessel that unflinchingly expresses the richness of our inner landscape.

Also showing will be the work of all the Gallery Concord Members and the juried California Watercolor Association show of watercolors created in this year's workshops.

Gallery Concord is at 1765 Galindo St. Concord CA 94520 (at the corner of Galindo & Clayton). Free parking is available off Layton Road behind the gallery. Gallery phone is (925)691-6140. www.galleryconcord.blogspot.com

Transitions are always expected around the new year and this year brings a transition to CWA’s Outreach Program. As many of you know, Carol Smith, our long time Assistant Outreach Director is now a full-time art student and had to give up her outreach position. Her replacement is Michal Weinstein. Nan Lovington continues as the Director of Outreach.

CWA’s outreach program provides children and adults with opportunities to cultivate their growth in art, in our case with water media. Outreach coordinates with guest artists to teach classes at different Bay Area schools and other community venues. These classes are offered free of charge and CWA provides free art materials. The classes are approximately fifty minutes to an hour long and they are scheduled at the guest artist’s convenience. The classes are casual and fun for children, adults and the artist. There is no specific format for teaching these classes. Each artist brings their own experience and style in water media to teach a class. Outreach handles all of the set-ups and Michal and other volunteers are there to help you.

We have a long list of schools in the Bay Area that are interested in our program. However, our list of member artists willing to volunteer to teach classes is very short. As we all transition into 2010, Outreach asks our members to consider volunteering to be a guest artist once or twice a year. It’s an opportunity to get involved in art and CWA! If you have an interest in having some fun and passing along your knowledge, please write Michal at michalweinstein@yahoo.com or call at 415 441-4842. Thanks and Happy New Year Everyone.
