Jurors

Frank Webb, Juror of Selection

Frank Webb, AWS-df, NWS, has authored four books and has conducted over 500 workshops. Nine museums have collected his work. In 2019 he was the first artist to be honored as a living legend by the American Watercolor Society. "With large flat brushes and plenty of water I approach the paper in slam-bang initial washes, and end with the caress of a butterfly wing. Fused into the paint is my delight as qualities and relationships emerge from the process. Thus, a new reality is re-created which began with observation but goes beyond what is to what ought to be."

David Savellano, Juror of Awards

David Savellano is a Bay Area artist who works primarily en plein air, creating watercolor paintings that capture random moments—on the street, in nature, and wherever else his portable easel takes him. The challenges involved in painting outside are essential to what makes this peculiar art form so vital, and a big part of David's efforts to create the feeling and energy of spontaneous work. "I enjoy working outdoors because it's unpredictable and lends itself to a kind of spontaneity you just can't get in a studio."
