October ZOOM Demo Artist David Savellano, MCWA

This will be a ZOOM Paint Along for CWA members to participate at no charge, on Wednesday, October 21, from 7:00–9:00 pm. The ZOOM Meeting ID, material list and reference photos for the paint along subject will be emailed to CWA members approximately two weeks prior to the demo. The format will be David painting, with participants sketching along.

Given the COVID-19 pandemic, are you dreaming of traveling in the future? Well, you can still safely practice travel sketching techniques. Want to enrich your travel experiences and combine your travels with your artistic endeavors? Then you will want to participate in this ZOOM sketching session by featured artist David Savellano, Juror of Awards for the CWA 51st National Exhibition.

Travel Sketching enables you to record your unique and personal insights. You will come away with an enduring recall of your travels, remembering details and experiences distinctively your own. Although your sketching time may be limited, you can execute the drawing and then complete the watercolor washes at a later time. Sketchbooks are compact and accessible when that artistic inspiration hits you. As an added bonus, your sketches can be the basis for larger and more detailed art work.

David's demonstration will review the ins and outs of the plein air (outdoors) sketching experience, and basic techniques of ink and watercolor sketches. He will discuss the key questions to ask yourself before you put ink or a brush to the paper. Over the years, David has developed a quick, fresh, loose watercolor style which lends itself well to the time

From the President California Watercolor Association

"Only do what only you can do!" Paul Sloane

Now is the time to only do what only you can do!

We as artists and we as people get caught up in the daily tornado of life and end up transported to the Land of Oz before the blink of an eye. Why is that? Well, I think it is because our minds work on so many different levels, we get caught up in the "funnel cloud" and land far from the plains of home! Yes, these are turbulent times. Our concerns are spread over many issues, including health, social and political.

We all need to take a step back and focus. This will give us a moment to regroup our thoughts and think about what only we can do. If we do not do that our actions become unfocused and we accomplish nothing. Don't you feel very uncomfortable when you're trying to do twenty tasks but never finish any of the twenty? I know I do! I now find myself writing one task per piece of scrap paper. And, yes, I may have many scrap papers on my counter with small, medium and large tasks written on them. But guess what? I pick up one scrap of paper, complete the tasks and throw the paper away. Voila! I completed something! Yeah! Then what happens? I grab another piece of paper and do that task! Do you see the pattern here? I also make time for my art.

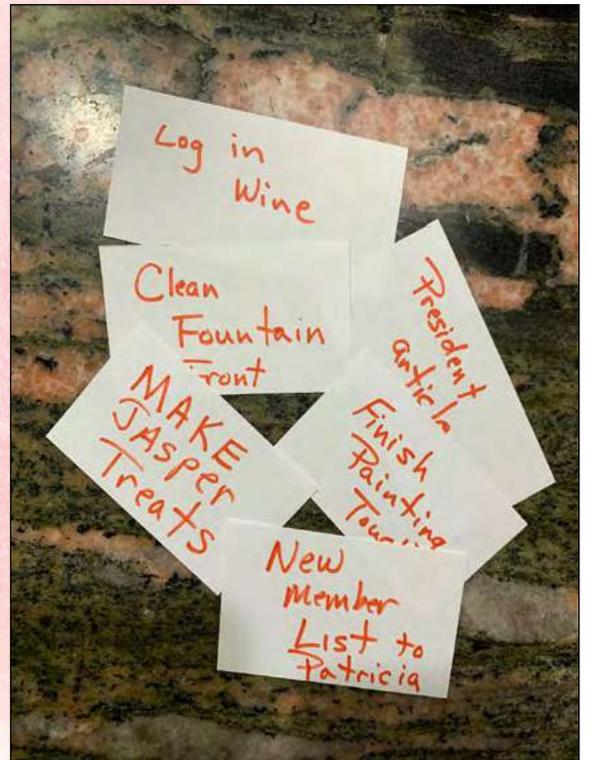

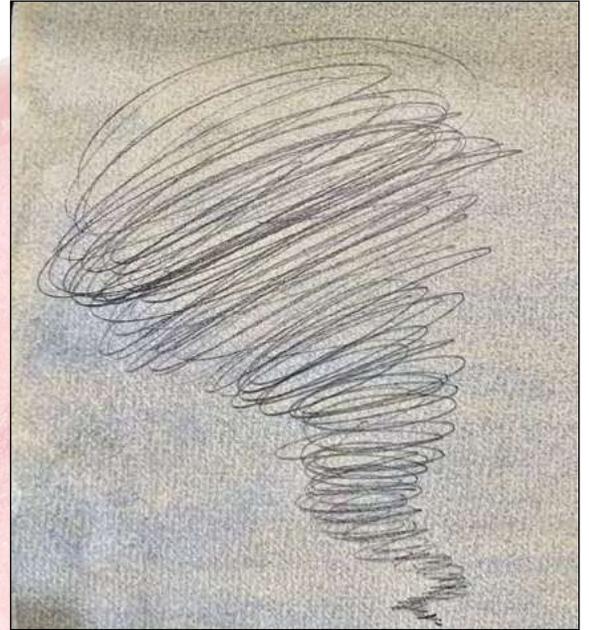

Up until a few months ago, we were going about our lives in the usual pattern. We jumped in our cars and went to work, grocery shopping, coffee drinking, wine tasting, art gallery gazing all at the drop of a hat. We jumped on public transportation to go into the big cities to museums on a whim. We took our dogs to the dog park and our children to the playground for play dates.

It is different at the moment. We have to put a lot more thought into what we are doing. Our futures do not "look" like they did at the beginning of 2020. But I have news for you! You can only do what only you can do! So as the old expression says "you can't eat the watermelon whole" so you can't do everything all the time. Step back. Organize your thoughts and proceed. I believe one of the most important things we as artists need to do is remain true to our art. It is a special part of our being and we must not cast it aside as unimportant in the grand scheme of things as they are at the moment.

Focus. Create. Thrive!

Only do what only you can do!

Community Outreach

The Oakland VA Plans for the Future

The Community Outreach programs with the Martinez VA and the Oakland VA have been on pause due to COVID. However, we have maintained contacts. The Oakland VA art group had been meeting in a small room at an Outpatient VA building on 21st St. in Oakland. Nancy Redden, our Oakland VA contact, has asked if we would be willing to hold plein air sessions when the air quality improves. Of course we agreed as we'd been missing our sessions with the veterans.

The plan is yet to be finalized. We need to read the smoke signals. In the mean time the vets were invited to share the Michael Holter general meeting demonstration on September 16. And happily our future will include sharing art making with the Oakland VA veterans because we all enjoy it.

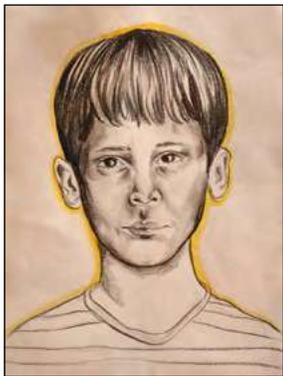

Community Outreach

The Memory Project at Clayton Valley Charter High School

Memory Project Portraits Created by the Art Club of John Sweet High School

Community Outreach committee has been offering to sponsor high school students in the Memory Project. The Memory Project connects developing nation students with U.S. students through art, specifically portraits. The project furnishes the U.S. students with photos of developing nation students from which they create 2D portraits. The Art Club of John Sweet High School participated in this project last year with impressive results.

This year Community Outreach offered to sponsor students at Clayton Valley Charter High School. Then we learned that all classes there are virtual, via computer, and that the students are working at home with the materials they have there. Yet we are thrilled to report that despite these difficulties a number of students are planning to do the Memory Project. Fortunately CWA has been able to offer these students some supplies thanks to the generous donation of quality paper from Helena Katz and Gerald Lester. Furthermore, the Clayton Valley students were invited to share the Michael Holter general meeting demonstration on September 16.

As the pandemic is worldwide it is likely that the developing nation students whose portraits will be created are also being impacted. Sponsoring this program is bridge building, a way of greeting them and wishing them well. Community Outreach will continue to contact schools and offer their students the opportunity to participate in the Memory Project.

Should you know a student or high school art teacher who may be interested, please contact Georganne Zaro-Eddy (925) 980-7722. Thank you!

WATERCOLOR WORKSHOP

CALIFORNIA WATERCOLOR ASSOCIATION
2-Day Online Workshop

Michael Holter, NWS, TWSA, OPS, SWS Watercolor Impressionism: Landscape 2-Day ZOOM Online Workshop | October 29–30, 2020

Novice and Advanced
CWA Members $225 Non-Members $250
20 Students Max

This workshop will focus on the use of watercolor to paint exciting impressionistic paintings. You paint from photographs and will explore the use of light and shadow to create interesting compositions and achieve dynamic results.

You will experience Michael's well-produced online watercolor workshop through Zoom and other special high-quality online streams. You will have an opportunity to paint along with his demo's or watch carefully and for up to two weeks from the recorded sessions. The workshop will be interactive.

We will examine the fundamentals of watercolor painting to assure that all students are familiar with the techniques. Daily discussions and application of the principles and elements of design will be woven into your painting experience.

You will engage in exercises that will solidify the content that you are working on and Michael will demonstrate his approach to creating landscapes and you will be able to follow along and paint with him during the demos.

constraints of traveling. He is eager to share his personal knowledge gained after self study, weekly life drawing and numerous watercolor and drawing classes and workshops.

Draw and paint-along during the demonstration. Participation is encouraged; so have a sketchbook or watercolor paper, permanent black sketch or ink pens, brush and a small travel set of watercolors ready for the ZOOM sketching session on October 21.

An Oakland native and UC Berkeley graduate, David has practiced architecture for more than 40 years and is a self-taught artist now fulfilling a desire to teach. He has earned signature membership in the National Watercolor Society (NWS) and master signature membership with the California Watercolor Association (CWA). David has studied with Jerry Stitt, Joseph Zbukvic and other prominent watercolor artists. Since 1998, David's paintings have been shown in local and national exhibitions; his works have won multiple honors and awards. His work is in the collections of corporations and private collectors. You can see him at many local and regional plein air events where he has produced award winning paintings.

David teaches Travel Sketching and Plein Air painting classes and participates in plein air painting events.

Open CWA Board Positions...

Now and for 2021

"Volunteering is the ultimate exercise in democracy. You vote in elections once a year, but when you volunteer, you vote every day about the kind of community you want to live in." — Author Unknown

Hello fellow CWA members,

Yes, it's that time again. I never get tired of asking you to volunteer to be a board member!

We are asking you to step up and become a member of the CWA board. What is new this year is that we are running our meetings on ZOOM!

It is not nearly as fun as meeting in person, however it is easier than driving to a meeting when it's dark, raining or a high traffic time. Please keep this in mind when considering joining the board.

Positions open right now:

Vice President/Membership (position can be shared)

Communications Director (position can be shared)

Member At Large (Two positions open)

Position open 2021:

President (position can be shared)

Yes, it is time for me to retire. After three years as Program Director and six years as President it is time to step down and welcome others to the position. I will be working on various items for the board but I will not be on the board. I will assist in any way I can for 2021.

Here are brief descriptions of the positions:

Vice President/Membership: The Vice President shall manage the membership processes of recruitment, record membership, new member orientation, and shall oversee management of petition(s) for signature membership(s). The Vice President shall be responsible for duties or special projects as may be prescribed by the President and/or CWA Board of Directors. In the absence or disability of the President, the Vice President shall perform all duties of the President; shall have signature powers over the financial accounts along with the Budget Director, which shall have the same validity and binding effect as if done by the President. The Vice President shall act as Board Liaison to the Data Manager.

Communications Director: The Communications Director shall work with the board to publicize CWA and its activities, including contacting other arts groups and news organizations as requested by a board member or appointed Committee Chair. The Communications Director shall manage the publishing of the Newsletter and the actions of the webmaster. The Communications Director shall be the designated board member to receive all inquiries sent to the email address noted at the start of the Policies and Procedures document and to then pass said inquiries to the proper Board, committee, or staff person.

Members At Large: The two members at-large will have no assigned programs. They will provide assistance to the Board on special assignments, will learn the Boards' functions, and will serve as liaison between the Board and the general membership.

President: The President shall supervise the Association's activities and put into effect the decisions of the Board. The President shall preside, at meetings of the Association both general and Board; appoint chairman and members of all Committees except where otherwise stated; sign all written contracts or obligations of the Association subject to Board approval; shall function as ex-officio member of all committees except the Nominating Committee; make a report at the November general meeting of the progress of the Association during the past year with recommendations for the coming year; shall appoint a qualified person to review the annual accounting processes once per year; shall have signature authority over the financial accounts along with the Budget Director; shall be responsible for seeing that the Bylaws and Policies of the Association are carried out; and, may have such other powers and duties as the Bylaws may direct; shall carry out the duties of the office in such a way as to promote the effective operation of the Association.

To contact me about a one of the board positions, please go to: www.californiawatercolor.org/contact.php and choose President from the drop down menu.
