Cameroon Student Portraits

by Pinole Valley High School Students

Memory Project
www.memoryproject.org

Here you see a good selection of the portraits created by Pinole Valley High School students for Cameroonian students. I say, "Bravo!" Seeing the future goals of the Cameroonians may inspire the Pinole Valley students to think about their own personal life goals. Their teacher, Mars Tremor, tied it into Pinole Valley High School's Black History Month Jubilee featured in the YouTube link below.

As Pinole Valley recommenced in the New Year, the school had a terrible outbreak of Covid. Mars students pulled together. Those who were not ill finishing their own artwork then going on to complete the artwork for those who were ill. As Mars said, "It took a village" to finish the project and mail it in on time, but they did.

"A PERSON IS A PERSON BECAUSE HE RECOGNIZES OTHERS AS PERSONS."

CWA Community Outreach is thrilled to have sponsored these students in the Memory Project. We also are sponsoring students at Campolindo High School. Stay tuned.

Thank you!

Community Outreach Thanks, John Salminen!

As an award winner in the CWA 52nd National Exhibition, John generously donated his $450 winnings of Daniel Smith, and M. Graham & Co. paints to Community Outreach. We are excited that our upcoming events will be in high-quality colors.
