OUTREACH

ALAMEDA COUNTY FAIR

BLUE RIBBON AWARDS

Each year CWA recognizes three students in the Alameda County Art Competition whose work expresses creativity, storytelling, and the use of water media. This year the judges, Marianne Elliott, Georganne Zaro and Sheila Cain, enjoyed a preview of the fair and juried the winners. Victoria Bianco presented the awards, a blue ribbon and $50. Victoria was assisted by Marianne Elliot.

In her remarks Victoria observed "Self-expression through water media (or any medium) has a way of taking us through peaks and valleys necessary for growth. By expressing yourself, you are allowing what is within you, out. Let your imagination flow as you continue on your journey of the exploration of life and water medium."

The judges gave Kailey Ornelas's work, titled "Painting" an award for her use of watercolor medium in expressing the emotional concept of water and for her creative use of iridescent color to enhance this fish painting.

They gave Anastasia Wu's work, titled "Self Portrait" an award for her conceptual design, originality, and drawing abilities in expressing an emotionally impactful composition.

They gave Renny Zhu's work, titled "Watercolor" an award because of her beautifully executed design and use of water media to create an emotional mood. Her use in the movement of color and value range showed contrast between light and dark.

Seeing students work and judging it is a pleasure you too could enjoy and presenting the Blue Ribbon Awards is like being caught in a swirl of excitements as families and friends enthusiasm is contagious.

Kailey Ornelas's, "Painting" category 7th - 8th grade

*Anastasia Wu's, "Self Portrait"
