

Vibrant Watercolor Painting

with
Soon Y. Warren, NWS, AWS

Watercolor Group Studio Exercise

The class will learn the process of how to create an image of a cut crystal bowl and Koi in watercolor. A step by step images and text will be provided for the guidance for all level. To speed up the class exercise, Soon Y Warren will provide a reference photo and drawing for the group exercise. Following a painting demonstration, workshop participants will paint their own painting in order to fully understand the process. While concentrating on technique, the concept of color theory, composition, and color values will be incorporated into the workshop.

For the second project, Soon will provide images of animals for students to choose from and practice the pouring process to loosen up.

While painting, workshop participants will learn:

- Glazing and washing techniques to create a luminous under painting
- How to see and use value, light, and dark to create image
- How to approach a painting
- How to incorporate the concept of color theory and color relationships into a painting
- Discussion and critiques will follow during workshop session
- In addition to the group exercise, participants are encouraged to bring current pieces to paint along with reference photos. To make the most of instructional time, prepare the drawing before the workshop.
